| DATE OF CONTENT. 19 August 1949 DATE OF CONTENT. 19 August 1949 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No noval aircraft seemed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTSCHE in Field. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the lotter of 16 October 1978 from the Drescher of 2008 This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the lotter of 16 October 1978 from the Drescher of 6 October 1978 from the Drescher 1978 from the Dresch | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| DATE OF CONTENT_19 AUCUST 1949 25X1 ATE PREPARED_28 September 1940 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 | for an artists of |
| PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) The addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTSSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but#Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 178 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) The addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTSSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but#Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 178 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) The addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTSSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but#Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 178 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | 25X1 |
| PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTSSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but#Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | 2 0/(1 |
| PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed ment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but%Tepports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | Market D Disc. see. |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EN were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Teports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the leiter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Preports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Preports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | Military to the second state |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Director of Central Intelligence with the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | Norman or and Albert |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the lefter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | Market and the same page |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. X1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Peports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the lefter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | Marie Control of the Control |
| In addition to Soviet army units, Soviet Air Force units of about three hundred EM were also quartered in the barracks of the DRESDEN-KIOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KIOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but reports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| the DRESDEN-KIOTZSCHE (N 52/F 29) airfield. Twenty-three U-2 biplanes were counted at the field. No novel aircraft seemed to be stationed there. (1 Comment: A ground attack regiment has been assumed to be stationed at the DRESDEN-KIOTZSCHE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but Preports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | Market and an arrangement |
| stationed at the DRESDEN-KLOTZSCIE airfield. From this report it is inferred that no ground attack aircraft are stationed there, but reports on the transfer of the ground attack regiment have yet been received. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | 25X1 25X |
| letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | • |
| letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. | |
| | |
| | |
| Documen No Change in Class. Declassified Class. Changed Auth.: His 19-2 | |

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENCE 25X1